

Wilson Wimmer

1970-1989

Taught all levels of mathematics, but specialized in teaching those students who learned at a slower pace.

Wilson was a supreme motivator of students. He was a dedicated and caring teacher.

Prior to his West Morris Central appointment, he worked as a principal and superintendent of schools in Pennsylvania.

"Teaching is the most honorable profession".